Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's Amendment filed June 14, 2007 and its request for reconsideration of the rejection of the last Office action is persuasive and, therefore, the that action is withdrawn. The Applicant has canceled claim 2. Claims 8-21 remain withdrawn from consideration.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1 and 3-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1, line 9, the phrase "attributes" lacks antecedent basis. From line 7 one or more attributes is claimed. Subsequently, from line 8, plural attributes are recited from the claim language. Further, from claim 1, line 8, "event attributes" is recited, while claim 3, line 2, "dynamic event attributes" is recited. It is not clear if Claim 1, line 8 is the same event as recited from Claim 1, line 7. Thus, it is not clear what constitutes the "attributes" recited from line 7. Clarification is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 1 and 3-7, as understood, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Wood, Jr., US 7,050,997.

Wood discloses, e.g. Figs. 1-46, a financial management software program for processing in a computer, comprising selecting accounts, events and selection criteria from a database, e.g. cols. 1-3, Figs. 1-4, 14, 15 and related text; elements 12, 22, 23, 24, 26, 28, 37, 38, 40, 45, 46, 142, 143, 144, 145, 146, 150, 154; claims 1, 18, 31, 34, and appears to process the selection criteria in a parallel process. Wood does not specifically disclose the term selector function. However, Wood does disclose selecting from the template class objects from a particular group. Thus, to have provided a "selector function" to group the selection criteria for Wood would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art. The motivation for having done such would have been to have implemented a common knowledge mechanical tool to select the accounts needed for processing.
